

Application for Membership

To the Council of the Society of Construction Law: I apply for membership of the Society of Construction Law. I declare that the information given below is true and that my work is connected with the construction industry and the law relating to it, either directly or indirectly. If the Council of the Society decides to admit me to membership, I agree to abide by the Society's constitution (and any amendments to it).#

I enclose cheque for £165 (sterling) made payable to the Society of Construction Law (£65 joining fee plus first year's membership fee of £100).

I have read the note at § below and, if I become a member of the Society, will agree  will not agree  to being sent mailings from external organisations selected by the Society.

Signed ..... dated .....

Please return to: Mrs Frances Whitehead, Membership Applications, Society of Construction Law, 114 Pettits Lane, Romford, Essex RM1 4EJ.

Surname †* ..... First name † ..... Title † .....

Main occupation/profession † Please circle one of the following: Academic, accountant, adjudicator, arbitrator, architect, barrister, claims consultant, construction client, contractor, engineer, mediator, project manager, solicitor, student, subcontractor, surveyor, other construction consultant, other lawyer, other.

Organisation (if any) †* .....

Full postal address †* .....

.....

Tel †* ..... Fax * ..... DX .....

E-mail * .....

Degrees and qualifications † .....

Nature of present involvement in construction law and areas of particular interest †

.....

.....

Please circle any region you wish to receive information about (one only); all members receive information about London, and information about all regions appears on SCL's website: Belfast, Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, Edinburgh, Eire, Glasgow, Leeds, Manchester, Newcastle, Oxford, Sheffield-Derby-Nottingham, Southern, Not applicable.

A copy of the constitution can be found at www.scl.org.uk.

* These details will appear in the Members Directory. † This information must be provided please.

§ The Society allows carefully selected external organisations with an interest in construction law (such as publishers or conference providers) access to its database of members' names and addresses, and in exchange receives an income of some £1,500 a year. Under the Data Protection Act 1998 the Society must give you the opportunity to say whether you do or do not wish to receive such mailings.