

Competition Cartel and Bribery

A conference organised by

CENTRE OF CONSTRUCTION LAW & SOCIETY OF CONSTRUCTION LAW

THURSDAY 25 FEBRUARY 2010 at 2pm

An afternoon conference examining three of the most important issues in procurement today, competition, cartels and bribery. This is a growing area following the introduction of the new Bribery Act due to come into force this year and the recent action against construction companies by the Office of Fair Trading.

The seminar will be chaired by Professor Phillip Capper (Partner White & Case, Nash Professor of Engineering Law at King's College London) and Nicholas Gould (Visiting Senior Lecturer King's College London; Partner, Fenwick Elliott LLP)

The expected speakers are:

- [International perspective, lenders perspective] (To be confirmed from Worldbank)
- Bob McKittrick (CoST UK Multi-Stakeholder Group Chairman)
- Adam Aldred (Partner Addleshaw Goddard)
- Sarah Hanniford QC (Keating Chambers)

Presentations and discussions start at 2pm and end at around 6.15pm, followed by a drinks reception.

The organisers gratefully acknowledge support from Fenwick Elliott LLP, Solicitors.
