Joint Event between the Society of Construction Law, the Adjudication Society and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators:

“Appropriate Dispute Resolution in Asia: The Singapore Approach”

Date/Time: 14th November 2024, 12.30pm to 2.00pm

Speaker: Justice Philip Jeyaretnam, President of the Singapore International Commercial Court & Judge of the High Court of Singapore

Venue: 12 Bloomsbury Square, London, WC1A 2LP (www.12bsq.co.uk)

Justice Philip Jeyaretnam will speak about the role of the Singapore International Commercial Court (SICC) in relation to international arbitrations seated in Singapore, and the Court’s protocols with the Singapore International Mediation Centre and the new INTEGRAF (Integrated Appropriate Dispute Resolution Framework) scheme. More generally, he will speak about transnational commercial disputes in the Asian context, including by reference to recent decisions of the Singapore Court of Appeal.

The talk will be followed by a complimentary light lunch and the opportunity for networking.

This meeting is free of charge to Members of SCL, the Adjudication Society or Ciarb and their guests but registration is required. Please register on the SCL website here:
