Refunds/Cancellations Policy

The Society of Construction Law appreciates that at times it is necessary to cancel bookings to events and to request refunds. However, the SCL will have incurred a cost as a direct result of a booking being made.

If you cancel 6 months or over, we will deduct 10% of the full price before issuing a refund. If you cancel between 3 months and 6 months, we will deduct 25% of the full price before issuing a refund. If you cancel between 1 month and 3 months, we will deduct 50% of the full price before issuing a refund. If you cancel between 10 days and 1 month, we will deduct 80% of the full price before issuing a refund. If you cancel within 10 days of the event no refund will be issued.

However, if it is possible to sell the place/s then the SCL will make a full refund less an administrative fee of EUR 20 per place.

The SCL aims to ensure that people have equal access to our events. If you need alternative formats or other reasonable adjustments, please contact one of the SCL Administrators Jill Ward admin@scl.org.uk or Frances Whitehead frances.whitehead@scl.org.uk. Please note that any arrangements will have to depend on the nature of the venue and what can be done.

SCL have introduced procedures and policies to ensure GDPR compliance. All members and their guests attending this conference will be providing us with personal data. We will be using this data for our records, and these will be archived after the event but will remain in our files as part of the history of the Society. We will be printing a delegate list which includes a list of all of those attending along with the name of their employer. The data will also be passed onto the venue along with dietary and seating requirements. You will also be required to obtain documentary approval from your guests of their acceptance of the above use of their data. If you or your guests do not wish for their names to be listed in the booklet, please let us know no later than three weeks before the event. By registering your interest and attending the event, you confirm agreement to the above.
