

SCL Astra, present the
Google's Kings Cross Headquarters

Construction Site Visit

Wednesday, 24th April 2019

The building will create a Google campus with the potential to house 7,000 Google employees. The property has been dubbed a “landscaper” a building as long and as horizontal as skyscrapers are tall and vertical. Google’s London flagship will be 1,082 feet long, which is 66 feet longer than The Shard, London’s tallest building, is high.
